BRYAN, TEXAS, MAY 19, 1909.

Young man, to be a poet is bad enough, but to be a politician is worse.

These are the days when corn grows an inch overnight—and weeds and grass two inches.

What will the people of Constantinople do for amusement when there are no more adherents of Abdul Hamid to hang?

If you are not reading the Eagle you are not getting the latest news at least twelve hours ahead of any other newspaper that comes to Brazos county.

The persistency of the talk about a third term for Governor Campbell indicates that somebody is interested in having it so. Where there is a continual smoke there must be some fire.

If that New York showman succeeds in securing Abdul Hamid and his harem for exhibition purposes the records of the Black Crook, Parsifal and Buffalo Bill will be forgotten.

Hitching horses on the sidewalk is inexcusable. It is a serious inconvenience for pedestrians to have to walk around, especially when the street is muddy. The sidewalks are not for horses.

Orville Wright says flying is not half so dangerous as motoring and after the machine has been paid for it is less expensive. But the first cost—$7000 for the cheapest aeroplane—will necessarily limit the sport to the rich for awhile.

SUNSHINE AND PHILOSOPHY

The trouble with most politicians, they want to be president before learning the rudiments as Justice of the Peace.

O—O—O

Don't be too hard on the legislators. They're honest, but don't know the difference between the Magna Charta and the Okalla Demands.

O—O—O

Tis not all of life to live Nor all of death to die; Heaven hath blessings yet to give And Hell's on deck to make you fry.

O—O—O

Isn't it too bad that the small boy is likely to be taken suddenly ill just about the time the baseball season opens up and the fishin' gets good.

O—O—O

Hall stones weighing ten pounds were reported near San Antonio. The report was delayed in getting in and the Lord knows it was a good thing it was, for if the report had gotten in on time there is no telling how big they would have been.

O—O—O

After Teddy has slain all the lions and other ferocious beasts in Africa, he may decide to show Nansen, Perry, Arbruzzi and the rest a thing or two by using the North Pole upon which to stretch his tent for a summer outing.

Gov. Tom held their noses to the emory wheel until they were flat as ducks bills, and now he's putting a keen edge on his snickersnee for the appropriation bill.

Kindly Eyes.

If you will look on the world with kindly eyes

You will see nothing in it to despise, In all that hitherto seemed low and mean

You will see virtues heretofore unseen And all the beauties of the world will grow

More beautiful than those you used to know.

The faults of others you can then condone,

Because they are so like unto your own, For others' actions you excuse can find As if they were your own you had in mind.

No harsh misjudgment will you then express,

Thus advertising your own littleness; No hasty criticism will you make, Which, though half founded, might cause hearts to ache.

But, loving all your world and by your world Beloved, forgiving and forgiven, furl'd Safe in dear hearts—all that will be your prize

If you look on the world with kindly eyes.

Longing.

The sun of May Shines bright today,

And I would like to haste away From pen and book,

And with a hook Just hob for bullheads in a brook.

The budding trees And balmy breeze Are making me feel ill at ease, I'd like to get Away from fret And once more get my fishline wet.

My office work I'd like to shirk,

And haste to where the fishes lurk O'er moor and fen

I'd walk again, Far from the haunts of busy men.

Would that I could Through field and wood Walk once again—you bet I would.

Alas, grim fate Says I must wait,

And toll for coin to pay the freight.

ASTHMA AND HAY FEVER WILL VANISH.

Everybody knows that Hyomel cures catarrh. But there are many sufferers from asthma and hay fever who don't know that Hyomel will give them instant relief and if used regularly permanent cure.

But E. J. Jenkins knows so well what Hyomel will do that he guarantees it to cure catarrh, hay fever and asthma.

Surely it's worth a trial on that basis and why people continue to choke and wheeze and spit and hawk and snuffle when a certain cure is at hand is beyond the comprehension of human intelligence.

When you breathe Hyomel deep into your lungs you breathe exactly the same pleasant antiseptic balmy air that you would breathe in the forests of pine and eucalyptus of inland Australia.

"Doctoring and remedies never helped my hay fever, till I used Hyomel. It gave me great relief, and has my endorsement."—Louis A. Grobe, Flint, Mich.

Complete Hyomel outfit is only $1.00 and extra bottles 50 cents. A Hyomel outfit consists of a bottle of Hyomel, a hard rubber inhaler, medicine dropper and full instructions for use. Just breathe it in and get immediate relief.
